Camp Erin® – LA
Camper Eligibility Checklist

☐ Prospective Camper is age 6-17.

☐ Prospective Camper experienced the human death of someone significant/close to them.

☐ Prospective Camper can recall memories of time they spent with and/or activities they did with their person who died.

☐ Death occurred at least 3 months before AND within the past 3 years of the camp session date they wish to attend.

☐ I understand that to assure Camp Erin – LA is an appropriate fit for my child/teen, the application process includes:

- A review of Prospective Camper's written application
- A phone screening
- An in-person Camper & Family Interview

Acceptance to camp is contingent upon completion of the in-person Camper & Family Interview.

☐ I understand that space is limited and applications are reviewed on a first come, first serve basis. Priority acceptance may be given to parental and sibling deaths.

☐ I understand it takes 2-3 weeks from the date I submit the application before I will be contacted.

If you have any questions regarding Camp Erin – LA, eligibility criteria, and/or the application process, please contact Robin Takashima, Clinical Coordinator of Camp, at (424) 220-6635 or Robin@ourhouse-grief.org.
