

Dear OUR HOUSE Grief Support Center Community,

Our support goes out to you and your families during this unprecedented time of the Coronavirus pandemic and we hope you are safe and well. We want to thank you for connecting with us during this tumultuous time and being patient as we ramped up operations from in-person, which we have done since 1993, to online, which we have been doing since April 13, 2020.

Our mission has always been to bring the community grief support services, education, resources and hope. We created this COVID-19 webpage for you, and please follow us on social media or call us if you need any additional information. Although we might not be seeing each other in person, know that we are with you, holding space for your grief.

We will continue to update you as we navigate these uncertain and vulnerable times. And if you have any suggestions or comments, please email them to ourhouse@ourhouse-grief.org
