Sweet Goodbye

Message from OUR Co-Chairs

Dear Friends,

It is our pleasure and honor to welcome you to the 2021 House of Hope Gala, Luminaries and Light. Tonight marks the return of our annual Gala after last year's cancellation due to the pandemic. How grateful we feel to be celebrating with you in person at this gorgeous venue. This year more than ever, we have all been witness to so much loss, which brings home once again the importance of an organization like OUR HOUSE. We have an incredible evening planned for you tonight, and we hope you leave our Gala even more inspired to volunteer, to continue supporting us, and with a deeper understanding and appreciation of the important services and programs offered by OUR HOUSE Grief Support Center.

Tonight we are proud to honor our past Board Chair, Irwin Feinberg, with the Founder's Award. Irwin is deeply connected to OUR HOUSE and has been a group leader for 11 years and a Board member and financial supporter for 20 years. In addition, we gratefully honor Amanda Kloots, author of Live Your Life, with the H.U.G. award for sharing her grief journey with so many and being an incredible ambassador for normalizing grief.

Susan and I have enjoyed Co-Chairing this Gala, and very much appreciate the team that has helped us every step of the way. Our sincere thanks for the hard work and dedication from our Fund Development Chair, Robin Blau, the experience and expertise of Jory Goldman, and the entire Gala Committee. We are incredibly appreciative of Lynzee's tireless help with every detail, and thank Shannon, Lucia, and the rest of the OUR HOUSE staff for their ongoing support.

A big thank you to our fabulous Emcee Jim Moret (Chief Correspondent for Inside Edition), Rabbi Steve Leder (author of The Beauty of what Remains, in conversation with Amanda Kloots), and our very special guest, Fredda Wasserman (marriage & family therapist, previous Director of Adult Programs at OUR HOUSE, and facilitator of the conversation between Steve and Amanda). Their participation in tonight's program and their strong commitment to OUR HOUSE is deeply appreciated. As this evening highlights our vision of hope and healing, please know that your kindness and generosity make a difference in the lives of each child and adult on their very personal journey of grief after the death of someone close.

On behalf of our boards, staff, volunteers, and clients, we hope you have a fabulous time tonight! Eat, drink, shop, and a heartfelt thank you for joining us here tonight.

With sincere gratitude,

*Patty Colman &
Susan Kurtzman*

Message from OUR Founder

Dear Friends,

In October of 1993, after 2 years of hard labor, OUR HOUSE was born. We have reached beyond the quarter century mark. Wow! My husband, Dan, was the construction engineer on our first office, and he would be so proud tonight of all that we've accomplished and the many people we've served. We now have multiple locations and many satellites throughout Los Angeles County. We are an integral part of the community.

OUR HOUSE is my home away from home, and an extended part of my family. I am the Founder and will continue to be the dreamer. Thank you one and all for welcoming OUR HOUSE into YOUR house. You are all the CEMENT and MORTAR that is our foundation. We are the little "AGENCY" that could.

XO,

Joey

JO-ANN LAUTMAN

Message from OUR Board Chair

Dear Honored Guests,

It is my privilege to welcome you to the 2021 House of Hope Gala, Luminaries & Light. On behalf of the Board of Directors of OUR HOUSE Grief Support Center, we want to thank you for joining us this evening and for all that you do to support the mission of OUR HOUSE. We are so proud of the work that happens at OUR HOUSE serving griever throughout our community. We believe in the power of group – being with others who share a common grief experience, who care and are available to listen and who provide support on their collective journey toward hope and healing.

This evening we celebrate our accomplishments, but most importantly we congratulate our fellow board member, Irwin Feinberg, on receiving the 2021 Founder's Award, our organization's highest honor. As a longtime adult group leader and two-time Board Chair, Irwin has demonstrated unparalleled compassion, wisdom, and mission-mindedness while wearing all of his "hats" for OUR HOUSE. As Immediate Past Board Chair, I have called upon Irwin numerous times for critical input during my term. Irwin has worked tirelessly during his 20-year Board tenure on behalf of OUR HOUSE, and we are so fortunate to have his dedication, insights and institutional knowledge. We are in a better place today because of Irwin's unfaltering commitment across two decades. This award is so well-deserved!

OUR HOUSE is served by two dedicated groups - the members of the Board of Directors and Volunteer Group Leaders. As the governing body of the organization, the board members are stewards of your donated dollars, overseeing how these precious resources are spent and ensuring the maximum impact of our programs. At the same time, our army of dedicated volunteers co-lead the adult and children's groups. Without them, we would not be able to provide the caliber of grief support that we have been able to deliver for these 28 years.

During the Covid-19 pandemic, we are proud to relay that the agency has seamlessly pivoted to online services and education as the need for grief support has risen exponentially in our community. OUR HOUSE has continued to bring the message of hope and healing to so many in the darkest of days. I want to thank our dedicated staff who make OUR HOUSE run so smoothly day-to-day and who, together with our volunteers, bring a passion and a dedication to the mission that is second to none.

Have a wonderful evening and again, thank you for all you have done and will continue to do.

ROBYN SANTUCCI, ESQ.

About Us

The OUR HOUSE mission is to provide the community with grief support services, education, resources, and hope. Since 1993, OUR HOUSE has helped thousands of grieving children, teens, and adults as they embark upon their journeys to hope and healing.

Founder's Award Recipient

IRWIN B. FEINBERG, ESQ.

The Founder's Award is bestowed by OUR HOUSE Grief Support Center founder, Jo-Ann Lautman. It is our agency's highest award and recognizes an individual who has contributed significant time and resources to help OUR HOUSE further its mission.

Jo-Ann and the Board of Directors could think of no one more deserving of the 2021 honor than Irwin. Irwin was first introduced to OUR HOUSE more than twenty years ago. When at a professional networking luncheon, hearing firsthand about OUR HOUSE, Irwin recounts that he was interested in giving back to the community, and the mission of the organization immediately spoke to him. He joined the Board of Directors, and soon thereafter was recruited to the position of Board Chair, serving for three years at a seminal time in the development of the agency. Irwin has been such a dedicated and pivotal Board member that he recently completed a second term as Chair. Irwin has long been the consultant on all legal matters, and his voice of reason can be counted on to provide good counsel in all matters legal and otherwise.

When asked about working alongside Irwin, one can recite a long list of positive attributes. It is unanimously thought that Irwin is an inspiration to all, his presence instills confidence and comfort, and he does so with gravitas, grace, and humility. Irwin's perspective and insight, coupled with his problem solving and communication skills, contribute to his outstanding leadership ability.

In addition to his service on the Board of Directors, for more than 11 years Irwin has volunteered as a group leader, facilitating grief support groups for parents who have experienced the death of a child, a role that is very important to him. His devotion to community has also led to extensive involvement with Claire's Place Foundation, The Westview School, Kanye ERAS, and the Cure FD Foundation.

H.U.G. Award Recipient

AMANDA KLOOTS

An Ohio native, Amanda brings her infectious and inspirational attitude to everything that she does. A former Broadway dancer and Radio City Rockette, Amanda performed on a variety of stage, film, and tv productions for over seventeen years and now is a co-host on CBS's The Talk.

Amanda's love of dance and fitness led her to work and lead classes at one of New York's premiere fitness studios where she taught regularly sold-out classes upwards of 12 hours a day. Amanda developed the jump rope method after years of trying different ways to stay in great shape. She fell in love with the jump rope after discovering it's the quickest, most effective way to get a full body workout, and spent years creating ways to use it for more than just jumping. In 2016, Amanda decided to focus full time on her AK! Fitness brand. Her signature classes feature jump ropes and dance mixed with cross training to create a unique full body workout.

In addition to the AK! Fitness brand, Amanda and her sister Anna launched the apparel company Hooray For® that celebrates positivity and donates proceeds to non-profit organizations worldwide. Amanda's first memoir, co-written with her sister, will be released in June 2021. The title, Live Your Life, tells of her ninety-five-day struggle and love story with her husband Nick Cordero.

Kloots currently resides in Los Angeles with her son, Elvis.

Special Guest

STEVE LEDER, AUTHOR OF THE BEAUTY OF WHAT REMAINS

Steve Leder is the senior rabbi of Wilshire Boulevard Temple in Los Angeles. After receiving his degree in writing and graduating cum laude from Northwestern University, and spending time studying at Trinity College, Oxford University, Leder received a master's degree in Hebrew letters in 1986 and rabbinical ordination in 1987 from Hebrew Union College. He is the author of three books: The Extraordinary Nature of Ordinary Things, More Money Than God: Living a Rich Life Without Losing Your Soul, and the bestseller More Beautiful Than Before: How Suffering Transforms Us.

Tonight's Moderator

FREDDA WASSERMAN, MA, MPH, LMFT, CT

Fredda Wasserman has been part of OUR HOUSE since the very beginning. She served as a volunteer group leader for several years before becoming the Clinical Director of Adult Programs – a position she held for nearly 20 years. Fredda has developed and presented grief education programs for literally thousands of medical and mental health professionals, educators, and clergy and was the 2011 recipient of the OUR HOUSE Founder's Award. Recognized as an expert in death, dying, and bereavement, Fredda has devoted her career to life's final chapter. She is the co-author with Norine Dresser of SAYING GOODBYE TO SOMEONE YOU LOVE: Your Emotional Journey Through End of Life and Grief. Today Fredda maintains a private psychotherapy practice and serves as a consultant to the OUR HOUSE clinical staff.

Luminaries & Light

Modeled after our Camp Erin Luminary Ceremony, our luminaries represent a loved one who has died and the love and memories that live on forever. In the darkness of grief, we shine our light for a future of continued healing after the death of someone close.

Since 1993, people have turned to OUR HOUSE for support when they experience the death of a parent, child, sibling, partner, spouse, or another significant person in their lives.

As a House of Hope Gala supporter, you will help ensure the accessibility of OUR HOUSE services, so no child, teen, adult, or family ever has to grieve alone.

What is This Thing Called Grief

Grief is not a problem to be solved; It is a process to be lived.

At OUR HOUSE Grief Support Center, we believe that grief is a natural reaction after a death. When someone dies, griever's may experience overwhelming emotions including sadness, anger, guilt, and perhaps a sense of losing control. OUR HOUSE grief support groups offer a warm, supportive, caring environment where children, teens, and adults can process their feelings and begin to heal together.

“At OUR HOUSE, I learned that grief is a house of mirrors, a shape shifter, not something that ends and you graduate from, but a process that continues over time. No story is worse than the next – and the power of connection to others in this shared experience was/is an absolute comfort and soul soother. Thank You!”

- ADULT SUPPORT GROUP MEMBER

How You Can Help

Volunteer

- Be a group leader for children, teens, or adults
- Help at one of our events or in one of our offices
- Be a Cabin Buddy at Camp Erin Los Angeles

Participate

- Be an OUR HOUSE ambassador: tell others about the resources we offer
- Schedule a tour and bring a friend to one of our Grief Support Centers
- Connect with us on social media and stay up to date on our workshops, trainings and events @OurHouseGrief

Donate

- Help OUR HOUSE expand our programs by including us in your annual giving
- Purchase a brick to be added to our memorial wall in honor of a loved one
- Remember us in your estate plan

Volunteering

OUR HOUSE Grief Support Center volunteers make a significant difference in people's lives. They are the heart of our agency, helping grieving children, teens, and adults find hope and healing. Over 450 volunteers donate over 20,000 hours of service annually. None of the positions require prior experience, nor do volunteers need a clinical or professional background in bereavement, counseling, or education.

There are three meaningful ways to volunteer with OUR HOUSE:

- Volunteer Support Group Leader
- Grief Camp Volunteer
- Event and Administrative Volunteer

Volunteer to Co-lead Support Groups

Volunteer to co-lead support groups online or, when it's safe again, in our West Los Angeles, Woodland Hills, Mid-City/Koreatown centers and at various school and community sites in the greater Los Angeles area. We ask for a minimum one-year commitment to co-lead a group every other week in-house, or once per week for short-term groups held in schools or community locations. In addition, all volunteers attend group supervision conducted by our clinical staff once every other week. The average time commitment, including group meeting time and supervision, is 10-15 hours per month.

“I know that my life has been enriched by being a volunteer with OUR HOUSE. If you're considering leading grief groups, know that the training program is thorough and well organized, and the work is so meaningful.”

- VOLUNTEER GROUP LEADER

Child & Adolescent Grief Support Groups

“The thing I liked most about my group was how comfortable I felt there. I actually looked forward to the sessions. I loved all the projects we did, and it helped me feel like I wasn't the only one my age feeling like I did after my mom died.”

- TEEN GROUP MEMBER

In-House Groups

The death of a parent can be devastating for children and teens of all ages. At OUR HOUSE Grief Support Center, children ages 4 through 18 who have experienced the death of a parent join groups that are specific to the age of the child. Using grief-related art projects, writing exercises, and play activities, highly trained group leaders support the children as they make their way through their grieving process. Activities are designed specifically to help children hold on to their precious memories, express thoughts and feelings, adapt to the many changes in their lives, and memorialize their parent who died.

School-Based Grief Support Groups

Grieving children and teens spend most of their waking hours at school. Through our landmark School-Based Grief Support Program, we bring our grief support services to local public schools. Elementary, middle, and high school students can participate, free of charge, in an OUR HOUSE grief support group in their own school. The groups provide a safe place for children to share their thoughts and feelings with other children who are also grieving after the death of a family member or close friend. Upon the completion of the ten-week program, faculty and students report better concentration in school and improved social and behavioral functioning.

“Every student is different, but I believe the grief group has given them a chance to talk about something that they may not have anyone else to talk to about. It’s also given skills to students they can rely on later in life. I have seen kids who are hesitant about talking, but by the end, they are comfortable sharing and some even develop into leaders.”

- FROM A SCHOOL COLLABORATOR

Adult Grief Support Groups

“I’m so grateful for OUR HOUSE. Going through the grief process is like being on another planet. OUR HOUSE connected me to others who were also searching for words to feelings that were beyond description. The facilitators of our group provided a space in which we could experience loss without apology. I’ve never identified with total strangers before in the way that I did at OUR HOUSE. Together, we found our way back to earth.”

- ADULT GROUP MEMBER

Loneliness, anger, yearning, and shock can make day to day tasks feel overwhelming. Grievers may experience a sense of disbelief and ask themselves, “How did this happen to me? How can this be real? How can I go on?”

Being with others who are experiencing similar feelings provides comfort and support, allowing grievers to move along their path towards hope and healing. An intimate atmosphere helps to create a sense of community and support where feelings and memories can be expressed. The groups allow for nonjudgmental sharing, learning, and healing.

OUR HOUSE Grief Support Center groups are specific to the age of the griever, length of time since the death, and relationship to the person who died. Each group consists of eight to twelve members.

In-House Groups

For those grieving a:

- Partner or Spouse
- Child
- Parent or Sibling
- Close Friend or Relative

Spanish Satellite Support

OUR HOUSE Grief Support Center offers groups in Spanish (Programa satélite en español) at our three locations and throughout the community for adults who have experienced the death of someone close.

Después de la muerte de alguien cercano, el mundo de la persona en duelo se altera. Olas de emociones incluyendo tristeza, soledad, enojo, anhelo y shock pueden hacer que las tareas cotidianas se sientan demasiado difíciles. Las personas en duelo podrían experimentar un sentido de incredulidad y preguntarse a sí mismos, “¿Cómo me pudo pasar esto? ¿Cómo puede ser real esto? ¿Cómo puedo seguir adelante?”

El estar con otras personas que están experimentando sentimientos similares provee consuelo y apoyo, permitiéndoles a las personas en duelo avanzar en el camino hacia la esperanza. Una atmósfera íntima ayuda a crear un sentido de comunidad y apoyo en donde los sentimientos y los recuerdos pueden ser expresados.

Los grupos de apoyo al duelo en español de OUR HOUSE son para adultos que han experimentado la muerte de un ser querido cercano. Los grupos son ofrecidos en nuestros tres centros y en diferentes lugares en la comunidad. Los grupos permiten compartir, aprender, procesar el duelo sin ser juzgado y usualmente están formados de seis a ocho miembros.

Medical & Professional Education

OUR HOUSE Grief Support Center offers comprehensive grief training for therapists, clergy, school personnel, and medical and hospice professionals. Through lectures, case discussions, small group activities, and role-plays, these trainings enhance participants' ability to counsel grieving clients in both private practice and agency settings. Education programs are offered at our centers or on-site in schools, businesses, and organizations.

Medical Education

OUR HOUSE trains physicians and nurses at hospitals, hospices, and cancer centers on how to talk with patients who are dying and families who are grieving. We provide participants with a unique interactive opportunity to learn from our grief experts and OUR HOUSE alumni, to take the step from being a good to a great doctor or nurse in the eyes of their patients. Since 1998, our medical education program has been part of the curriculum for students at the USC Keck and UCLA David Geffen Schools of Medicine and the UCLA School of Nursing.

Mental Health Professionals

Our clinical staff provides educational programs for organizations. Presentations are tailored to meet the specific needs of organizations and the communities they serve. These interactive presentations range from an hour and a half to a full day, depending upon their requirements. OUR HOUSE goes on-site or hosts at our locations.

“The training encompassed all aspects of grieving as it relates to being a medical professional. I appreciated learning how to better use language to address death. The presentation was very eye-opening and changed my perception about grief and people’s experiences.”

- UCLA MEDICAL STUDENT

Continuing Education

Continuing Education Unit Workshops

OUR HOUSE provides continuing education units for Marriage and Family Therapists, Licensed Clinical Social Workers, Nursing Home Administrators, and Registered Nurses.

Throughout the year, OUR HOUSE clinical staff teach two-day and three-day intensive workshops. The workshops provide in-depth education, including intervention strategies and hands-on practice for professionals who wish to become grief literate for children and adults.

Clergy

OUR HOUSE trains clergy, chaplains, and pastoral counselors at hospitals, hospices, congregations, and seminaries on how to talk with patients who are dying and families who are grieving. We provide clergy and seminary students a unique interactive opportunity to learn from our grief experts and OUR HOUSE alumni.

“The two presenters are masters and made the training informative, accessible, welcoming, humorous and poignant. I learned so much, and feel more confident about working with clients experiencing grief.”

- CEU PARTICIPANT

On-Site Grief Response

“I am in awe that a service like this exists. You helped our company get back on its feet after an incredibly difficult time and allowed us to move forward together after this tragedy.”

- SMALL BUSINESS OWNER

A death in the workplace or school setting can profoundly affect an organization’s staff and community. Daily reminders of the person who died may trigger a myriad of thoughts and emotions. It may become difficult for coworkers or classmates to concentrate, and performance and attendance may drop. A forum will be needed for the expression of shared grief.

OUR HOUSE is available to provide on-site grief support to help people cope. Our clinical staff will design a response that suits the particular setting. Providing compassion and education to grieving employees or students allows the community to begin to heal. We offer the following services on-site or at one of our locations:

- On-site grief support in the early days following a death
- Grief education specific to the workplace or school
- Follow-up grief support groups
- Close Friend or Relative

Because no child should grieve alone

Camp Erin Los Angeles is a weekend-long camp providing children ages 6 through 17 with an opportunity to express their grief while enjoying fun outdoor activities. At Camp Erin, children and teens connect with others who are also grieving the death of someone close, learn coping skills to use after camp ends, and honor their special person in memorial activities.

In the last 12 years we have served hundreds of children and teens through this program with the help of more than 50 volunteers each session. We even held a virtual camp during Safer at Home recommendations from local government.

“Camp Erin is legit the best! Everyone is so kind and you will instantly make friends, so don’t worry! This camp is just what you will need, trust me! The food is FREAKING AWESOME! Just remember, don’t be afraid to talk to people about your feelings. Nobody will judge. Everyone here will support you! Just keep smiling, and when you’re not, remember you are not alone!”
