ABOUT THE PRESENTERS

Lauren Schneider, LCSW

Clinical Director of Child and Adolescent Programs

Lauren, a nationally recognized authority on children's grief, has provided trainings for mental health clinicians, educators, clergy, health care providers and graduate students throughout the community since 2000. Lauren is the author of Children Grieve Too: A Handbook for Parents of Grieving Children. She also created My Memory Book...for Grieving Children as well as grief-related curricula for use at Camp Erin Los Angeles and in OUR HOUSE grief support groups. Lauren is the Associate Producer of One Last Hug: Three Days at Grief Camp, an Emmy award winning HBO documentary about Children's Grief. She trains and supervises OUR HOUSE group leaders as well as MSW and MFT clinicians and students. Lauren maintains a private practice in Los Angeles specializing in grief and loss.

Maddy Goodreau, LCSW

Senior Clinical and Volunteer Coordinator

Maddy is a Licensed Clinical Social Worker with over a decade of non-profit experience. As Senior Clinical and Volunteer Coordinator, she conducts trainings for mental health and medical professionals to prepare them to competently support patients, clients and families around death, dying and grief. Maddy's previous professional experiences include child and family therapy, case management, non-profit development, and program management. Throughout her professional career, the constant guiding forces have been a deep commitment to the value and dignity of each life and the critical importance of the formation of positive relationships. She received a Master of Social Work degree from Loyola University Chicago.
